Why We Love Fall

Fall is here, and with it comes that special mix of cozy weather, warm colors, and renewed energy that inspires us all. There's something about the crisp mornings and golden leaves that reminds us to pause, reflect, and be grateful. I love fall because it brings people together — it's a season of giving, sharing, and connecting, all values that reflect the heart of our Federation work.

Busy Season for Our Clubs

Our clubs are buzzing with activity this time of year! From community projects and fundraisers to creative arts and service opportunities, there's so much happening across the Palomar District. Be sure to support one another's events — they're wonderful opportunities to learn, grow, and celebrate our shared purpose.

November Board of Directors Meeting

 Friday, November 15

 Bonsall Community Center

All members are invited to attend! In the spirit of the season, please wear orange for Giving and bring gently used or new jewelry to share. These items will go to the Boys & Girls Club, where children will choose a gift for their mothers this Christmas — a small act that spreads so much joy.

 Let's make this meeting a celebration of gratitude, generosity, and friendship!

Area D Conference Success

Congratulations to everyone who participated in the Area D Conference in Hemet! I heard it was a great success — filled with learning, laughter, and Federation friendship. Although I missed it (I was away on a cruise!), I'm delighted to know that Palomar was well represented. Thank you all for your energy and engagement.

Looking Ahead with Gratitude

As we move through this beautiful season, let's remember why we do what we do — to make a difference in our communities and to lift others through kindness and service. Together, the Palomar District shines brightly, and I'm so proud to be part of this amazing group of women.

 Wishing you all a wonderful November filled with warmth, friendship, and purpose.

District President Sherry Lutes' Special Project

One of the ongoing needs we have for our clients is transportation, as many of our clients do not have a personal car. We're looking for volunteers open to providing transportation on an as-needed basis/ whenever they have the capacity to. This may include taking them to church, meetings, or even recreational activities. However, this opportunity is only available to our Program Support Team, which are individuals who have completed these qualifications:

1. Volunteer waiver/handbook
2. Interview and call with the volunteer manager and Program Director
3. Background Check
4. Human Trafficking 101 online course
5. Program Support Training online course

Create more transportation opportunities for our clients so they can have the freedom to get to where they need to be! If you're interested in joining the Program Support Team, click here to sign up as a volunteer: <https://www.alabasterjarproject.org/volunteer-signup>

Email toni@alabasterjarproject.org for any questions. Thank you from Alabaster Jar Project.

Deans and Chairmen with Sonja Hults

Let's face it — being a clubwoman in GFWC or CFWC isn't just a hobby; it's an Olympic event. We juggle reports, bylaws, raffles, and refreshments like seasoned pros. We can set up a meeting hall in under an hour, arrange centerpieces with one hand, and still manage to find the missing gavel before the president calls the meeting to order. Somewhere between the roll call and the motion to adjourn, we've saved the world — or at least the community — one bake sale at a time. We are women armed with clipboards, calendars, and caffeine.

Behind the smiles and the sparkly pins, though, lies some serious multitasking power. A clubwomen know that every "simple" project involves at least three committees, one broken printer, and five people asking where the sign-up sheet went. Writing a report? That's an art form — part poetry, part detective work, and part endurance marathon. We count hours, dollars, miles, and moments — and then we count them again, just to be sure. It's hard work, but it's also heart work. When a child gets new books, a family finds comfort, or a park shines a little brighter, we know it's worth every spreadsheet and sleepless night.

Still, what makes our Federation sparkle isn't the reports or the ribbons — it's the sisterhood. We're bonded by laughter that echoes through convention halls, by hugs exchanged after long days, and by the shared joy of service. We may not wear capes (though we've definitely earned them), but we wear our pins with pride — because being a clubwoman is hard work, heart work, and the best work.

What should we offer next? Encourage all members to explore the GFWC Membership Tool Kit available at GFWC.org through the Member Portal and digital library. They can preview helpful articles and brochures to enhance their club experience.

While visiting the GFWC and CFWC websites, members should also subscribe to GFWC Clubwoman and California Clubwoman magazines to stay informed about activities across the nation and state. Don't forget to sign up for GFWC News and Notes and CFWC Quick Bytes as well—these publications provide timely updates and valuable information.

Finally, encourage your members to attend the upcoming District meeting on November 15 in Bonsall.

The WHRC collections encompass GFWC's institutional archives, including convention records, files related to our programs and leadership, and "Clubwoman" magazine (and its predecessors). We hold a robust photograph and audio-visual collection, as well as GFWC ephemera, memorabilia, and the art and artifacts that furnish our historic Headquarters building. We also maintain a reference library collection focused on women's history, the woman's club movement, and the history of volunteerism. Please note: While we do have many state- and club-level archival and photographic materials, we do not maintain official records for State Federations or local clubs, or for outside organizations.

CFWC Environment—

Nancy B Jones “Farmer Jones,” Chairman

October 17, 2025 Environment Workshop on Zoom

CFWC Environment Chair Nancy B Jones led a lively and fun workshop to share and promote Environment projects in clubs and districts. If you would like to have the materials shared at this workshop, contact farmerjonesavbg@gmail.com. Environment Chairs and members, including three from Palomar District and from across the state, joined in and learned about the GFWC program focus areas:

- ♦ COMMUNITY CONNECTION INITIATIVE: ENGAGE IN NATURE at OUR NATIONAL & STATE PARKS
- ♦ PRESERVE RESOURCES
- ♦ PROTECT WILDLIFE & DOMESTICATED ANIMALS
- ♦ LIVE SUSTAINABLY
- ♦ BEAUTIFY COMMUNITIES & ENJOY NATURE
- ♦ CONNECT WITH GFWC AFFILIATE ORGANIZATIONS, HEIFER International & UNICEF USA

The group filled in an acrostic poem, which was turned into a ChatGPT poem, with thanks to Janice West, Shasta District:

EARTH WHISPERS

The EARTH whispers softly through NATURE’S green song,
A reminder that we've been connected all along.
Through VISION and care, we start to see clear
Our INTERDEPENDENCE grows stronger each year.

RECYCLE the waste, give new life its chance.
While OXYGEN forms where TREES gently dance.
In NATIONAL PARKS, wild beauty takes flight,
From dawn's golden glow to the calm of the night.

MILKWEED blooms softly, feeding wings on the breeze,
A promise of hope between flowers and trees.
Protect the ENVIRONMENT, both near and far,
For every small act shapes who we are.

Use NATURAL CLEANERS, let TOXIC fade,
While balance returns to the world we have made.
Pick up the TRASH, let kindness take hold,
Restore what was broken, let harmony unfold.

Thank you for helping ... for caring to see,
That healing the EARTH begins with you and me.

Inspirational Message—Myrna Binford

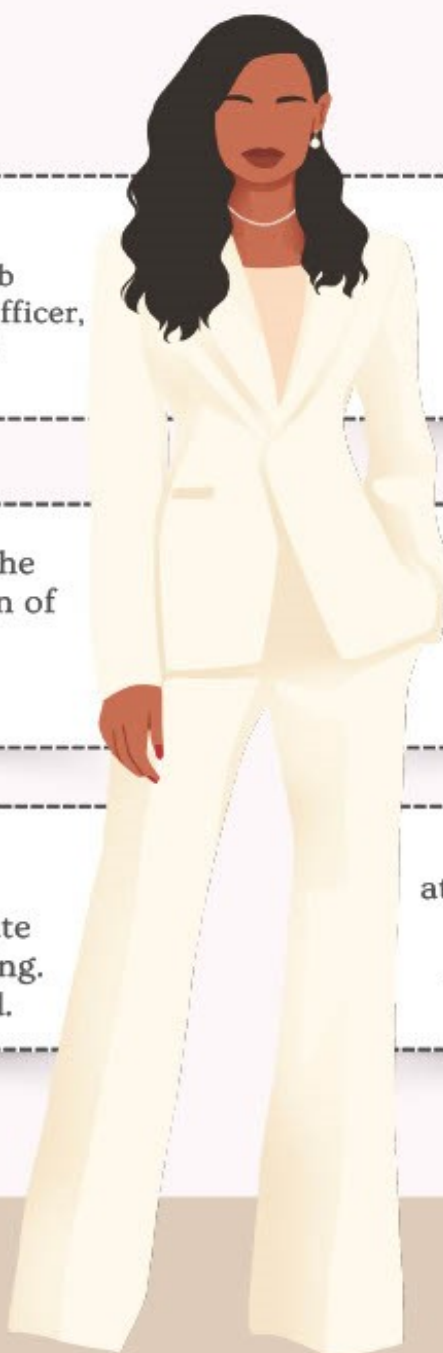

The world told her, "Be Invisible." She heard, "Be Invincible." All you need to reach your goals is already available. Be gentle to yourself. Sometimes, the words in our heads make all the difference, not what others say. You've so got this! Do good, and goodwill comes to you. Be yourself, you're so darn good at it!

Be strong, be wise, and be You! You only fail when you stop trying. Today is not just another day, it is the best day to change your life for the better. Start your day with gratitude and hope, and end your day with peace in your soul.

COULD THIS BE YOU?

Fallbrook Woman's Club National Day of Service September 24, 2025 Senior Scam and Fraud Prevention Workshop

For the 2025 GFWC International Day of Service, the Fallbrook Woman's Club (FWC) chose the Domestic Violence Prevention subtopic of Elder Abuse Prevention. A representative from the San Diego County Aging and Independent Services Department gave a two-hour long presentation on Senior Fraud (Financial) and Physical/Emotional Abuse. This was open to the community and a good mix of seniors from the community and from FWC attended the free event. The information presented was invaluable and the handouts were full of an overview plus dozens of resource contact details. The group engaged in a lively discussion of both personal experiences of past victimization and times when they almost fell victim, plus of great importance how they outsmarted the criminals. The feedback from attendees was positive and they expressed thanks for the opportunity to learn the information so close to home and for free. Members of FWC were wonderful ambassadors for the club, CFWC, and GFWC, explaining the focus on service. Many displays showing the history and events were posted near the snack tables as a sure-fire way to spread the word of the service and good works done by FWC. The event was such a success, it will be presented again in the spring of 2026.

The Woman's Club of Oceanside Marks GFWC National Day of Service with Essential Donations

The Woman's Club of Oceanside (WCO) once again demonstrated its commitment to community support by dedicating its efforts to the GFWC International Service Day. This annual, ongoing project is a cornerstone of the WCO's mission, focusing on aiding local families who are fleeing domestic abuse and violence.

Rather than trying to "invent the wheel," the club focuses on fulfilling known, critical needs right here in our community. This year, under the leadership of Service Project Chairman Gayle Lacy and Ysela Sharp and members collaborated to gather essential items for two vital local organizations:

- Operation Hope: The WCO collected and donated purses and clothing to assist women and families rebuilding their lives. To help women get a fresh start, these purses were filled with essential toiletry items, including shampoos, lotions, toothbrushes, toothpaste, hairbrushes, combs, and other miscellaneous items.
- Pathways: The club provided gently used clothing for children under five years old, offering immediate help to the youngest victims of domestic crises.

This service project is more than just a yearly event; it is central to the club's identity. The WCO is dedicated to addressing the immediate needs of those affected by sexual and domestic violence against women in Oceanside and its surrounding communities. By providing these practical donations, the club takes an active role in the ultimate goal of moving in the direction of ending this devastating problem and supporting those most vulnerable in the community.

Live each day as if it's your last. Everyday is a gift. Thank you.

The Woman's Club of Vista organized a clothing and shoe drive in September 2025 to benefit God's Heart Ministry/Las Valientes, an organization that supports survivors of domestic and sexual violence. The drive was aligned with the General Federation of Women's Clubs' (GFWC) theme for the year, which is focused on ending domestic and sexual violence. The collected clothing and shoes were sold by Las Valientes to a third-party seller. Pictured above is Dr. Ana Serrano, the director of God's Heart Ministry/Las Valientes, who reported raising over $800 from the clothing drive to help fund legal support for domestic violence victims.

Las Valientes is a Vista-based nonprofit program under God's Heart Ministry. It helps survivors of domestic violence navigate the legal system to obtain restraining orders, divorces, and child custody arrangements.

The Woman's Club of Vista's members collected the donated items from family and neighbors. The club highlighted their happiness in playing a small role in improving the lives of those victimized by domestic violence.
